

2011 Cook Canyon Ranch Paintball Course Rules

1. The course manager has the ultimate authority on the course. He has the authority to eject anyone from the course at any time for reasons he deems necessary.
2. Paintball markers will not be charged until told to do so. There will be no adjusting of any markers except by staff. If anyone is caught adjusting the markers, he or she will be ejected from the course immediately.
3. When not in play, all paintball markers will have a plug in them. Anyone who shoots a person with a plug in his or her marker will be dismissed immediately from the course.
4. While on the course, eye/face protection is mandatory at all times.
5. There will be no firing on players any closer than 15 feet.
6. No person, other than Cook Canyon Staff or those they authorized are allowed in the paintball shed.
7. When the referee signals cease fire, all players must stop firing immediately.
8. No head shots will be tolerated!!!
9. No personal markers are allowed on the course without prior approval.
10. All players will respect other players, staff and ranch property while on the course. No foul language will be tolerated.
11. There shall be no firing on any staff members at any time.
12. All calls by referees or course manager are final. Arguments with staff will result in dismissal from the course for the duration of the camp.

I understand all of the rules set before me and agree to abide by the rules at all times and submit to the authority on the course.
